F052101      People v. Dimery III

Filed modification of opinion (change in judgment).

The judgment is reversed. The case is remanded to the trial court to hold a hearing to determine whether the prior prison term enhancement from appellant's 1990 conviction was washed out. If it did wash out, the court shall permit the appellant, if he wishes to do so, to withdraw his plea and the People may proceed with their prosecution of this action. If the 1990 prior prison term enhancement did not wash out, the court may reimpose its original judgment.

Appellant's petition for rehearing is denied.

Vartabedian, Acting P.J.

We concur: Harris, J.; Levy, J.
